

Mapping School Inclusion

In a school where the Catholic ethos espouses the building of inclusive Catholic school communities informed by social justice, what might these areas of the school look like, sound like and feel like?

